BEARS DOWN CREEK WOOD 3-1

MT. JULIET -- After a day of rain delays, Mt. Juliet got back to the diamond and shut down Creek Wood, 3-1 Friday afternoon in the Wilson County Invitational.

Mason Barber took a no-hitter into the seventh inning, going 6.1 innings and striking out six, four in a row at one point.

Hunter Gilbert led the Bears at the plate with two RBI base hits. He picked up a RBI single in the bottom of the second, scoring Robby Amity, and a RBI double in the fourth, driving in courtesy runner Caleb Chowbay.

The other run came in the bottom of the third when Kyle Grace drove in Cody Carr with a RBI single.

Creek Wood got their only run on the top of the fourth on a walk and two errors by the Bears.

Creek Wood's Aaron Lee broke up Barber's no-hitter to start the seventh. Conner Sugg came in to shut the door and pick up the save, his fourth of the season.

In Wednesday's play, Mt. Juliet picked up a 4-3 win over Clarksville, and a 3-0 win over White House.
