Trousdale County 28, Watertown 0 --
HARTSVILLE -- Watertown dropped a third consecutive game Friday, falling 28-0 to Trousdale County High at John Kerr Field. The Purple Tigers (6-3, 4-3 in Region 4A) played much of the game without the services of junior quarterback Ty Jobe who suffered a knee injury early in the first quarter. The extent of the injury won't be known for sure until an MRI is conducted Monday.

Watertown trailed 15-0 at intermission and gave up two fourth quarter touchdowns for the final margin. TCHS improved to 7-2 overall, 5-2 in the league.

The Purple Tigers will host Jackson County Friday, Oct. 25 in the regular season finale.

Friendship Christian 41, RBS 0 --
RED BOILING SPRINGS -- Friendship Christian rolled to an easy 41-0 win at Red Boiling Springs Friday night as QB A.J. Long accounted for five touchdowns.

Long opened the scoring with a 52-yard dash early in the first quarter, then proceeded to throw touchdown passes of 47, 24, 38 and 24 yards. He finished 6-of-9 for 104 yards.

The Commanders improved to 8-1 overall, 6-1 in Region 4A. RBS slipped to 3-6 overall, 1-6. FCS will close out the regular season at home Friday, Oct. 25 vs. Monterey.

MJ Christian 20, MTCS 6 --
MURFREESBORO -- Mt. Juliet Christian Academy came up with 20 points in the second quarter for a 20-6 victory Friday at Middle Tennessee Christian School.

The win was just the second on the season for the Saints against seven losses.

Jackson Hill connected on a pair of field goals for MJCA while Rik Vanmali threw a 52-yard TD pass to Zach Jones. Elliott Lee scored on a four yard plunge for the Saints.

MJ Christian will close the 2012 season on the road Oct. 25 at Franklin road Academy.
