

BARBOURVILLE, KY -- Helena Dimantas Farias scored seven goals and added four assists while freshmen Simone Quinn and Morgan Shafer both netted hat tricks in Cumberland's 15-0 victory over Tennessee Temple in women's soccer action Saturday in the Golden Corral Classic in Barbourville, Ky.

Cumberland (1-1-0) scored 10 goals in the first half, including five from Dimantas Farias in the first 20 minutes of the match. The Bulldogs then added five more goals in the final 15 minutes of the period, two each by Quinn and Shafer and another from Dimantas Farias. All three players scored once in the second half, along with single goals from Lisa Long and Rachel Scoggins. Cumberland took 35 shots in the contest, including 24 on-goal, against Temple's Alesha Smith, who made nine saves.

Cierra Boots posted the shutout for CU in goal, making a pair of saves.

Dimantas Farias scored in the third, fourth, eighth, 15th and 19th minutes of the match for CU, with assists from Shafer and Brittany Kirby.

Quinn netted her first goal in the 32nd minute and Shafer followed in the 39th minute before another Dimantas Farias score in the 41st minute.

Shafer and then Quinn netted goals in the final two minutes of the half for a 10-0 advantage. In the second half Dimantas Farias scored four minutes in and Quinn followed three minutes later.

The Bulldogs did not score again until Long's goal in the 74th minute on an assist from Dimantas Farias. Shafer added her final goal three minutes later and Scoggins scored the last goal of the match in the 88th minute.

Cumberland takes on Austin Peay this Tuesday at 7 p.m. in Clarksville before opening the home schedule next Friday at 2 p.m. against Kentucky Wesleyan.