

MJ's Belhu earns weekly honor

Monday, August 20, 2012

Mt. Juliet High School senior linebacker Josh Belhu has been named the Music City Star Game-Day Express Player of the Week in Wilson County for Week Zero. Belhu made 13 tackles including two tackles for a loss and one sack. He helped hold rival Lebanon High School to 67 total yards in Mt. Juliet's 44-0 victory. Belhu is coached by Roger Perry.

Honorable mentions for Week Zero are Brannon Hill of Watertown High School and Preston Reed of Wilson Central High School. Hill scored three touchdowns for the Tigers and Reed blocked a punt to set up Central's first score and was in on 11 tackles -- including five for loss.

Each week during the high school football season, the Regional Transportation Authority of Middle Tennessee (RTA) recognizes a football player of the week among the four public high schools in Wilson County: Lebanon High School, Mt. Juliet High School, Watertown High School and Wilson Central High School.

Game-Day Express, the RTA's Music City Star train service to Riverfront Station for Tennessee NFL home games at L.P. Field, will operate again for the 2012 season and begin with the Sept. 9 game against the New England Patriots.

For the second straight year, customers can receive a 20 percent savings on Game-Day Express tickets if they purchase single-game tickets online between Aug. 1 and Aug. 31. During this time, tickets are available online for $12 instead of the regular $15 advance purchase price. Cost is $20 on the train on game-day.

The RTA will run one Music City Star train on game days. Parking is free at all of the outlying stations. Please note that regular weekday Music City Star tickets are not valid on the Game-Day Express train.
